DOOMED CHILDHOOD

Who am I?
And where was I born?
Who gave me birth?
And left me on this wretched earth?
These Questions surround my troubled life...
Stabbing my heart like hot knives
Why must I work in the hot sun?
Other Kids plays while my hands burn.
I too, wish to enjoy and play
Instead of making pots of clay
My heart's desire is a pen
Not heavy tool or working with cruel men.
But who will heed to my tears?
You live like kings with no fears
But why should I trudge and toil alone
I am forever in a big loan.
Such is the life of a labourer!!!
